Support this unique gathering of loon professionals, educators, and enthusiasts.

LoonWatch is delighted to convene researchers, experts, agencies, non-profits, and loon enthusiasts at the North American Loon Symposium. It has been over a decade since a loon symposium of this size and scope has taken place in North America, which means the importance of this event cannot be overstated. Symposium goals include:

- Discussion of loon threats and concerns
- Raise awareness of current research and trends
- Networking opportunities with loon enthusiasts
